

MAKING A CHILD'S FIRST BOOKS

SPONSORED BY: THE CENTRAL EARLY CHILDHOOD DIRECTION CENTER
AND THE MIDSTATE TEACHER CENTER

A HANDS-ON WORKSHOP FOR CHILDCARE PROVIDERS:

- Learn to make many kinds of books that help teach children basic literacy principles, such as:
 - Pictures and print match
 - Reading is front to back of a book
 - Writing is left to right
 - Proper book handling
 - Reading is fun
- Learn how a caregiver's expectations change for different ages
- Learn how full of literacy opportunities your home is
- Learn what is developmentally appropriate and what is not

MAY 8TH 6:00 – 8:00 PM FREE OF COST

WORKSHOP AGENDA

- 5:45 Arrival
- 6:00 Welcome and introductions
- 6:15 Explanation of Literacy Foundation
- 6:45 Break
- 7:00 Making Books: Different Kinds for Different Ages
Participants will create many kinds of books to use as samples. Materials will be provided by The Midstate Teacher Center.
- 8:00 Go home and try it with kids!

PRESENTER

Ann Pangburn has worked as a reading specialist, Literacy Coordinator and Coordinator of Rome City School District's Early Childhood Program. Although retired, she presently directs The Midstate Teacher Center for Madison Oneida BOCES. Ann has devoted her career to helping all children succeed, but her first love has always been our youngest learners. Therefore, she is particularly pleased to work alongside the Child Care Council providing workshops in the foundational skills needed for academic success.

TRIPLEXUS
T8 entrance, MOBOCES
4937 Spring Rd.
Verona, N.Y.

Register Online
www.moboces.org/ecdc or
Call ECDC@
315-361-5654