

Central New York Reading Council presents:

Books and Brunch

Friday, August 21, 2009

8:30-11:00 am

Barnes and Noble Bookstore

3454 Erie Boulevard East in Dewitt

This event is FREE and intended for school faculty & staff, university level education faculty, preservice teachers, and anyone interested in literacy education.

8:30-9:00 Event registration

9:00-10:30 CNYRC President Heidi Beverine-Curry presents:

Alphabet Books Aren't Just for Learning the Alphabet!

Fun Ways to Use ABC Books Across Grade Levels & Content Areas

This event kicks off the weeklong Barnes and Noble/CNYRC Bookfair Fundraiser being held August 21-August 27.

Simply present a voucher (available on-site) when making a purchase and a portion will be donated to support the

Ted Grace Reading Grove Project.

- A selection of the books discussed by the presenter will be available for purchase.
- Teachers receive a 20% discount with proper identification.

* Food provided by CNYRC

* Starbucks Coffee provided by Barnes and Noble

Although this event is FREE, we ask that you RSVP so plan accordingly: MSundberg@mcs.cnyric.org

