

The World is a Stage

Dramatic Play & The Development of Children

Presented by: Tammy Ablang

Date/Place: Tuesday, October 6, 2015 - Canastota Public Library (Canastota)
Wednesday, October 14, 2015 - Cornell Cooperative Extension (Oriskany)
Wednesday, October 21, 2015 - Frank J Basloe Library (Herkimer)

Times for all sessions: 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Cost: $10.00 (Holding fee-Refunded at training session)

Registration:

- No later than a week prior to training session
- All scheduled trainings must have a minimum of 7 Registered/paid participants.
- Registration and payment must be made by cash or check made out to Cornell Cooperative Extension, no later than one week prior to training session

Training Topic Areas: #1 Principals of Early Childhood Development
#3 Child Day Care Program Development

This fun filled training will help us to take a closer look at dramatic play and how creative experiences help to promote a child's growth and development. It will also be just the beginning of opportunities for us to work directly with you and your children on dramatic play onsite.

Please let us know if you have specific training needs or suggestions for topics

